
Memorandum of Understanding between

and (Aprobado mediante Acuerdo 07-27-2015. Acta 27-2015, Sesión Ordinaria No.27-2015, realizada el 10 de diciembre del 2015).

In order to achieve a successful and sustainable partnership, the University of Regina (Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada) and the Universidad Técnica Nacional (Alajuela, Costa Rica) endorse this Memorandum of Understanding.

Both Parties will make every reasonable effort to encourage direct contact, educational, and research cooperation between their constituents, including students, faculty members, departments, and research institutes, and will endeavour to cooperate in the fields with which both Parties are concerned. Within spheres that are mutually agreed to, the Parties agree on the following general forms of cooperation:

1. Joint educational and research activities;
2. Exchange of academic materials and academic publications;
3. Exchange of faculty members for research, lectures, and discussions;
4. Exchange of students under the Emerging Leaders in the Americas Program.

Themes of joint activity and the conditions for utilising the results achieved and arrangements for all forms of cooperation including visits and exchanges will be negotiated for each specific case. Both institutions understand that all financial arrangements will be negotiated and identified in an agreement prior to the commencement of the associated activities listed above.

It is understood that the implementation of this Memorandum of Understanding will commence on the date of later signature, and will continue thereafter for five years, subject from time to time to revision or modification by mutual agreement. Representatives from both institutions will discuss the terms of a renewal at least six months prior to the natural termination of the current Memorandum of Understanding.
